NEW YORK'S COLLEGE TEAM

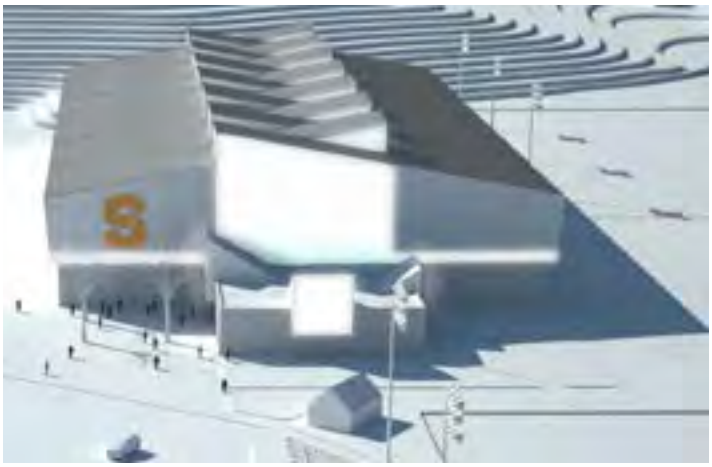
The only FBS school in the Empire State, Syracuse University is New York's College Team. Victories in the 2010 and 2012 New Era Pinstripe Bowls in Yankee Stadium and overwhelming success for the men's basketball team in Madison Square Garden underscore Syracuse's prominence in the nation's biggest city, which is home to Syracuse University's largest alumni base.

The Orange hue extends into New Jersey where MetLife Stadium has played host to 11-time national champion Syracuse men's lacrosse contests and will be home to the football Orange for multiple games in the next two decades, including the 2014 New York's College Classic against Notre Dame on September 27.

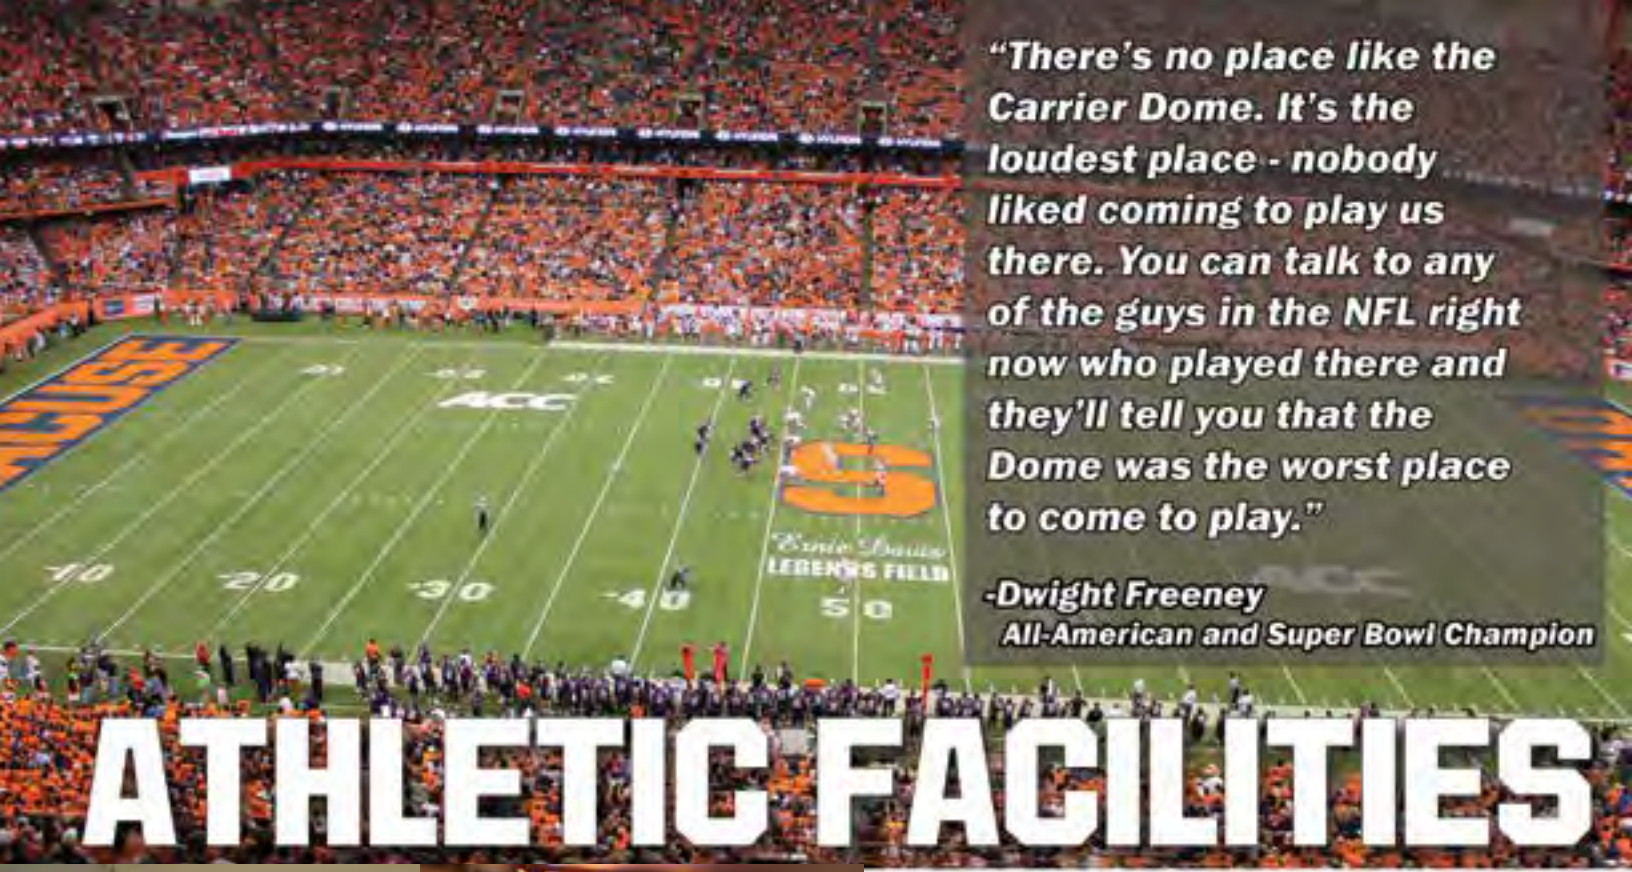
The Orange brand is prominent on the airwaves across New York State via the Syracuse IMG Sports Network, including game and coaches show broadcasts, and in the Big Apple, with games televised on the MSG and YES Networks. Syracuse is also woven into everyday life in New York City with signage on the ABC ribbon board, in Yankee Stadium, on New York City taxi tops, and in the Orange Box at the U.S. Tennis Open.

FOOTBALL FACILITY

The Iocolano-Petty Football Wing embodies the long and storied tradition of the Orange football program. The home of the Orange features a Carrier Dome theater, state-of-the-art player lounge, locker room and cafeteria, as well as displays honoring all of the Syracuse legends.



Construction is underway on a state-of-the-art indoor practice facility, which will serve as a traning center for the Orange. The 87,000 square-foot building will provide an innovative and modern practice environment and help develop the best and brightest student-athletes.



"There's no place like the Carrier Dome. It's the loudest place - nobody liked coming to play us there. You can talk to any of the guys in the NFL right now who played there and they'll tell you that the Dome was the worst place to come to play."
-Dwight Freeney

1959 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Undefeated and untied, the 1959 Orange capped off an 11-0 season with a 23-14 victory against Texas in the Cotton Bowl. Syracuse dominated its foes both offensively and defensively under the direction of National Coach of the Year Ben Schwartzwalder. The defense allowed a mind-boggling 193 yards rushing in 10 regular-season games. Running back Ernie Davis led the way for the Orange offense, which averaged 451 yards per game. Guard Roger Davis, who was selected seventh overall by the Chicago Bears in the 1960 NFL Draft, end Fred Mautino and tackle Robert Yates earned All-America honors.

FOOTBALL HALLS OF FAME

Syracuse is one of the most represented schools in both the National Football Foundation's College Hall of Fame and the Pro Football Hall of Fame. It is one of seven schools to have 18 or more inductees in the College Football Hall of Fame and at least seven enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. There are also four Orange that have been inducted into both the College and Pro Football Halls of Fame - Jim Brown, Larry Csonka, Floyd Little and Art Monk.

1961 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER: ERNIE DAVIS

In 1961, the Civil Rights Act was three years from becoming a reality. It would be four years until voting rights of all Americans were protected by federal law. But an unassuming sports hero was about to play an important, yet unintentional, role in the burgeoning civil rights movement. On December 6, 1961, Syracuse University running back Ernest R. Davis was awarded the Heisman Trophy. It was the first time in history that an African-American was honored as the best college football player in the country, even though blacks had participated in the game since the late 1800s.

As a sophomore, Davis rushed for a team-high 686 yards and scored 10 touchdowns to power Coach Ben Schwartzwalder's 1959 Orange to a 10-0 regular-season record, the nation's No. 1 ranking and a Cotton Bowl showdown with No. 2-ranked Texas. With the collective eyes of the college football world focused on Dallas, Texas, Davis captured MVP honors, scoring two touchdowns – one on an 87-yard halfback option pass from captain Ger Schwedes – and setting up a third to spark a 23-14 Orange triumph.

In 1960, Davis rushed for a team-high 877 yards and scored 10 touchdowns to earn All-America accolades. Davis led SU again in 1961, rushing for a team-best 823 yards and scoring 15 touchdowns. In the Liberty Bowl, he rushed for 140 yards on 30 carries and scored SU's first touchdown as the Orange rallied from a 14-0 halftime deficit to nip Miami, 15-14.

A unanimous selection for his second All-America honor, Davis was then honored as the 1961 Heisman Trophy winner.

President John F. Kennedy sent the following telegram to Davis in 1963 after a celebration of Davis' achievements in Elmira, New York:

> "Seldom has an athlete been more deserving of such a tribute. Your high standards of performance on the field and off the field reflect the finest qualities of competition, sportsmanship and citizenship. The nation has bestowed upon you its highest awards for your athletic achievements. It's a privilege for me to address you tonight as an outstanding American, and as a worthy example of our youth. I salute you."

Hoping to team the talented Davis with his SU backfield predecessor and NFL rushing king Jim Brown, Cleveland Browns owner Art Modell traded for the NFL draft rights to Davis and then selected him with the first overall selection in the annual draft. But before the former Orange stars could ever suit up together, Davis contracted leukemia and died on May 18, 1963. He was 23.

In the fall of 1979, Davis, who had taken the greatness of SU's No. 44 from Jim Brown and passed it on to Floyd Little, was a posthumous inductee into the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame. In 2008, 'The Express,' a motion picture about Davis, premiered in downtown Syracuse. Syracuse University has honored Davis in many ways, including with the retirement of his #44, erecting a statue of him on the University Quad, constructing Ernie Davis Hall, and celebrating the 50th anniversary of his historic accomplishment with an event in the New York Historical Society Museum in New York City in 2011.

LEGEND OF 44

Number 44 at Syracuse University is one of the most storied numbers associated with a college football program. The running back position at Syracuse has a rich tradition of greatness. Much of that greatness has revolved around one jersey number — 44.

Three players who have donned the number 44 are in the College Football Hall of Fame. Those three — Jim Brown, Ernie Davis and Floyd Little — rank among the finest running backs to ever play the game.

Overall, 25 players have worn the historic jersey.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

Stevenson Educational Center

The Stevenson Educational Center, located in Manley Field House, provides a computer lab, tutor rooms, career development suite and conference/meeting rooms for daytime as well as evening study table opportunities for Syracuse student-athletes.

The educational center is involved in additional activities directed toward enhancing academic performance. Orientation programs for incoming student-athletes are held at the beginning of the first semester in order to aid in the transition. Career planning programs have been developed to assist those who are undecided on their major course of study. As student-athletes approach the end of their college careers, programs coordinated by the Stevenson Educational Center team help them enter the work force or explore graduate school opportunities.

The Stevenson Educational Center team focuses on the enhancement of academic performance through the development of study and communication skills, goal setting, stress and time management, tutoring and mentoring. Academic performance is monitored for NCAA, ACC and SU eligibility and degree advancement toward graduation.

A UNIQUE PRESEASON EXPERIENCE

During preseason camp the Orange travel to Fort Drum to learn from one of the largest teams in the world – the United States Army. Syracuse visits the 10th Mountain Division to develop their leadership skills in sessions with soldiers and strengthen team chemistry, in addition to preseason camp workouts.

While on Post, the Orange holds meetings in an Army battalion headquarters, eats in an Army dining facility and sleeps in actual soldier barracks. In addition to their football development, student-athletes and coaches participate in various military activities, including Army physical training, small-unit leadership seminars and a paintball tournament. The week culminates with a scrimmage played before the 10th Mountain Division soldiers and their families.

Throughout the season, the Orange honors the 10th Mountain Division by displaying the division's flag as it takes the field.

"Being at Fort Drum for a few days, I'm shocked with how much I've learned. I never really understood how much leadership and teamwork are involved in the Army. All of those little things that they talk about and they preach, I always find myself thinking about how I can work that into the football team. I think it will help our team because we are learning from the best team in the world."

– Ryan Nassib, Quarterback

THIS IS SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY

Founded in 1870, Syracuse University is a private, co-educational, urban institution with a long legacy of excellence in the liberal arts and professional education and in engaged scholarship in the community and world. SU embraces its role as a public good, pursuing innovative and collaborative scholarship that promotes positive change.

Syracuse University enrolls about 14,800 undergraduates and 6,000 graduate students in 11 academic schools and colleges, four of which—the Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs, S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications, the School of Architecture, and the School of Information Studies—are widely acclaimed as among the best in the nation. Academic programs such as creative writing, industrial and interactive design, and environmental engineering also are nationally recognized. SU students enjoy the resources of a beautiful 270-acre main campus as well as extended campus venues in the City of Syracuse; immersion sites in New York City and other major metropolitan hubs; and study abroad centers on several continents. SU's Los Angeles campus hosts an LA Semester in which students aspiring to careers in the entertainment industry learn from and network with industry leaders, many of whom are SU alumni.

Syracuse University's student body is among the most diverse for an institution of its kind across multiple dimensions. Students represent all 50 states and 126 countries; roughly 30 percent are students of color and 17 percent first-generation college students. SU also has a robust financial aid program, with nearly two-thirds of students receiving some type of institutional aid. Its varied scholarship opportunities include, among many others, the nationally recognized Haudenosaunee Promise scholarship program for residents of the Six Nations of the Iroquois.

CITY OF SYRACUSE

New York State Fair

Destiny USA

Skaneateles Lake

Located in the heart of New York State, the City of Syracuse and its nearby environments offer a blend of city life and scenic countryside escapes. Among its many attractions, the city hosts a symphony, an opera company, museums, art houses, and professional theater. Historic Armory Square in downtown Syracuse is filled with restaurants, pubs, and boutique hotel and shopping opportunities, along with the hands on Milton J. Rubenstein Museum of Science & Technology. To experience some of the unique sites the city has to offer, visitors can travel the Connective Corridor, a three-mile developing urban design project linking Syracuse University with the city's cultural attractions.

Beyond the city, the area features abundant county and regional parks. The Rosamond Gifford Zoo, Beaver Lake Nature Center, Onondaga Lake Park, and Baltimore Woods Nature Preserve offer plentiful recreation and entertainment opportunities.

Syracuse is also home to Destiny USA - a 2.4 million square-foot destination shopping complex. Destiny USA recently underwent a 850,000 square-foot expansion that combines full-priced and value retail, fine dining and entertainment venues. It is the sixth-largest shopping center in the country, featuring more than 260 tenants.

Residents and visitors enjoy the region's four seasons, which allow for various outdoor sports, including cross-country and downhill skiing, snowmobiling, biking, fishing, hiking, and canoeing. In addition, more than 40 golf courses are located throughout the greater Syracuse area. For the sports enthusiasts, Syracuse is also home to the Syracuse Chiefs, the AAA affiliate for the Washington Nationals, and Syracuse Crunch AHL Hockey.

A yearly end-of-summer celebration with exhibitions, food, and entertainment, the Great New York State Fair draws hundreds of thousands of visitors every year. The area also hosts many other festivals, including the Jamesville Balloon Fest, Syracuse Jazz Fest, and the Great American Antique Fest.

In recognition of the area's many assets, Forbes magazine in June 2010 listed Syracuse in its top 10 ranking of "America's Best Places to Raise a Family."

Chancellor and President

Kent Syverud is Chancellor and President of Syracuse University. Appointed by the University's Board of Trustees in September 2013, he assumed the leadership post in January 2014, becoming the 12th leader of the University since its founding in 1870.

Chancellor Syverud came to Syracuse University from Washington University in St. Louis, where he served as Dean and Ethan A.H. Shepley Distinguished University Professor since 2006. Prior to that, he served eight years as Dean at Vanderbilt Law School. During his tenure at Washington University, he led efforts to create university-wide programs in Washington, D.C., in partnership with the Brookings Institution and in New York in partnership with the Olin School. He also advanced efforts to expand online education opportunities, including development of an innovative online master's degree program.

Chancellor Syverud has served since 2010 as one of two Independent Trustees of the Deepwater Horizon Oil Spill Trust, a $20 billion fund created by BP in negotiation with the White House to pay claims arising from the BP oil spill in the Gulf of Mexico. A 1981 graduate of the University of Michigan Law School, he also was an expert witness for the University of Michigan in the landmark affirmative-action case Grutter v. Bollinger.

After earning a Juris Doctor and an M.A. in Economics, Chancellor Syverud went on to serve as a Law Clerk for Judge Louis Oberdorfer of the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia and for U.S. Supreme Court Justice Sandra Day O'Connor. He practiced law in the fields of litigation and insurance at Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering in Washington, D.C., from 1985 to 1987. From 1987 to 1997, he served on the faculty of the University of Michigan Law School, earning tenure in 1992 and advancing to Associate Dean for Academic Affairs in 1995. He has been a Visiting Professor at the Cornell Law School, the University of Pennsylvania Law School, and the University of Tokyo Faculty of Law and Politics.

A past Editor of the Journal of Legal Education, Chancellor Syverud also has served as President of the American Law Deans' Association, as Chair of the Board of the Law School Admission Council, and as President of the Southeastern Association of American Law Schools. He is a past Chair of the accrediting authority for law schools in the United States, the ABA Section on Legal Education and Admissions to the Bar; and a past Chair of the Board of Access Group, which is evolving into the largest funded nonprofit organization in the world benefitting legal education.

Chancellor Syverud has published numerous law review articles concerning civil litigation, insurance law, and negotiation as well as a monograph on the professional responsibilities of insurance defense lawyers. His more recent writings have concerned legal education and service as Dean, including the articles "Three Principles of Effective Deaning," "A Parable of Law School Leadership," and "How Deans (and Presidents) Should Quit." A frequent speaker at conferences in the United States and abroad, he has received outstanding teaching awards from students at both the University of Michigan and Vanderbilt University.

Chancellor Syverud and his wife, Dr. Ruth Chen, are the parents of three grown sons: Steven, Brian and David. Dr. Chen, an environmental toxicologist, holds a Professor of Practice appointment in the L.C. Smith College of Engineering and Computer Science at SU.

Director of Athletics

Dr. Gross is in his ninth year leading the Athletics Department at Syracuse University. During his tenure, Gross has advanced Syracuse's performance on the playing fields and court, creating broad-based athletics success unseen in the history of the University. Under his leadership, Syracuse is consistently recognized as one of the great athletics institutions in the country, with the goal of producing the world's future leaders through championship-caliber sports experiences. In 2013, Syracuse was invited to join the Atlantic Coast Conference, a groundbreaking achievement that resulted in SU quadrupling its TV rights revenues. The first year in the ACC was marked by setting an on-campus college basketball attendance record of 35,466 for Syracuse's win over traditional ACC power, Duke, in the Carrier Dome. His mission for Syracuse Athletics is to compete and perform at the highest level in everything – in competition, in the classroom, and in the community, in an effort to graduate student-athletes who will make a positive impact on society. The principles in which he believes include winning championships, graduating the maximum number of the student-athletes, and maintaining compliance to all NCAA rules, while being fiscally sound and efficient.

A veteran athletics administrator, Gross has led Syracuse Athletics to historic levels. Syracuse had its best finish in school history in the 2013 NACDA Learfield Directors' Cup. In fact, the across-the-board finishes in the last three years have been part of the top four performances in SU Athletics' history. In each of the past two seasons, a record ten teams were represented in the NCAA postseason. In that span, Syracuse is one of just two schools nationally to place both men's and women's basketball teams in the NCAA tournaments and win football bowl games in those same years (Louisville is the other). Gross centers his administration around his head coaches, and his insistence and emphasis on having the best leadership in the world has produced arguably the greatest assembly of head coaches in the country, including Hall of Fame Basketball Coach Jim Boeheim, five-time Men's Lacrosse National Champion Lacrosse Coach John Desko, legendary Lacrosse player Gary Gait as the Women's Lacrosse coach, perennial National Championship contending Ange Bradley in Field Hockey, 2013 ACC Cross-Country Coach of the Year Chris Fox and many more.

Gross has increased Athletics' revenues to record levels by increasing donor giving to its highest amount in history, significantly increasing corporate sponsorships, and creating multiple new line item revenues. The department was the leading campus unit in the University's 'Campaign for Syracuse', a $1 billion fundraising endeavor, which was publicly launched in November 2007. Gross has led a capital campaign, which has seen the construction of the Carmelo K. Anthony Basketball Center, the Manley Hall of Champions, the renovation of Manley Field House to an indoor practice facility, the re-surfacing of football practice fields, the naming of the Carrier Dome field as 'Ernie Davis Legends Field,' a weight room, a lacrosse practice field, a field hockey field, an ice hockey training facility and locker room complex, a new Dome field for football and lacrosse, a multi-media studio for Orange All Access, upgraded Dome amenities, new suites and floor seats, and improvements to many other Athletics' facilities. The latest athletic facility is the new Indoor Practice Center, which will allow Orange Football and other programs at Syracuse to train without interruption 365 days per year.

Branding the Orange

As the lone BCS University in the state of New York, Gross continues to brand Syracuse University Athletics as New York's College Team. This branding plan was a critical component of SU's invitation to join the Atlantic Coast Conference. SU Athletics continues to have events all over the Empire State and in the largest metropolitan area of the nation. In addition to basketball games at Madison Square Garden, football and lacrosse have played at MetLife Stadium, in what is believed to be the most lucrative contract ever done for neutral-site games in college football history. An Orange presence at the U.S. Open tennis tournament and "Orange is in The Apple" celebrations are regular events in the NYC area. The 2010 and 2012 football teams added to the prominence of the Orange in NYC by winning the New Era Pinstripe Bowl championship, while the men's lacrosse team has won both of its games at MetLife Stadium. Marketing initiatives include SU Athletics' taxi tops in Manhattan, as well as the NY logo on the back of the football helmets. The Athletics department launched a new website in 2014, Cuse.com, and is a leader nationally in design and multi-media content. Gross enhanced the 'Cuse Cares' Program for student-athletes to engage and make an impact on the community. Student-athletes won the Chancellor's Award for Community Service for the 14th consecutive year in 2011. Syracuse student-athletes continue to graduate at a high level and have received prestigious academic awards that include one Rhodes Scholar, 13 ESPN the Magazine/ CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, and one finalist for NCAA Woman of the Year Award since 2005. In 2007, Gross initiated the 'Cuse Awards, a celebration of the accomplishments of all student-athletes, coaches, and administrators.

In 2005, Gross retired the #44 in football, honoring the Syracuse greats who donned the number. The 'Legend of 44' includes 1961 Heisman Trophy winner Ernie Davis, who was the first African-American to win the award, as well as legends Jim Brown and Floyd Little. Gross also played a role in the production of the motion picture, "The Express," which tells the story of Davis, and worked to bring the September 2008 movie premiere to Central New York.

Developing the Plan to Lead

Prior to his appointment at Syracuse, Gross served as senior associate athletic director at the University of Southern California. During his 14 years in athletics administration at USC, the Trojans won 16 national and more than 30 Pac-10 championships, fielded 145 Olympians, played in nine bowl games, and finished in the top 10 of the Directors' Cup ranking almost every year. The University's signature program – football – dressed two Heisman Trophy winners and won two national championships.

At USC, he directed coaching searches and contract discussions, served as the department's spokesman, led marketing and corporate sponsorship efforts, negotiated television contracts, developed and contracted football and men's basketball schedules, directed student-athlete academic services, and directly supervised 10 of the University's 19 intercollegiate sports programs, among other responsibilities. In 2001, he led the effort to sign long-time NFL coach Pete Carroll. Gross' searches also produced women's volleyball coach Mick Haley, track & field coach Ron Allice, men's and women's water polo coach Jovan Vavic, and tennis coach Peter Smith, all of whom have won national championships and been named national coach of the year. Gross was named a senior associate athletic director in 2002. In that role, he led USC Athletics' corporate sponsorship program to record revenues, and he headed the football marketing effort that broke USC attendance records. Gross also assisted in the biggest building program in the history of USC Athletics, including facilities for track & field, tennis, football, women's soccer, basketball, and volleyball.

Gross holds both a master's degree and Ph.D. in educational psychology from USC, as well as a bachelor's degree in psychology from the University of California at Davis, where he was a football wide receiver from 1979 to 1981, catching passes from future New York Jets quarterback Ken O'Brien. From 1982 to 1985, he was on the UC Davis football coaching staff; in 1985, the Aggies were the nation's No. 1 Division II team. He also was the assistant men's tennis coach. In 1986 (Citrus Bowl) and 1987 (Rose Bowl), Gross was a graduate assistant at USC, working with quarterbacks and wide receivers. From 1989 to 1991, he worked for the New York Jets as a personnel scout and in the front office. Gross joined the USC athletic administration as an assistant athletic director in 1991.

A native of Los Angeles, Gross and his wife, Lael, Syracuse's assistant athletics director for trademark licensing, reside in Fayetteville with their daughters, Jamie (SU Class of 2018), Jolie, Zoe, and Averie.

Quarterback Terrel Hunt (10) returns to lead the offense, which will rely on the strength of the offensive line, including veterans Rob Trudo (55) and Sean Hickey (60).

Head coach Scott Shafer is clear on what he has in mind for 2014. His first season at the helm, which culminated in the team's third bowl victory in four seasons, was a success, but he has no intention of allowing the program to settle there. He and the Orange head into preseason camp with more experience and more across-the-board depth than last year's group. There is no shortage of land mines ahead, not the least of which is a Carrier Dome date with defending national champion Florida State and a MetLife Stadium encounter with Notre Dame. Always ready for the challenge, Shafer and his staff are anxious to build on the foundation in place.

Here is a position-by-position preseason look at the 2014 Orange:

QUARTERBACK

One of last year's unknowns is one of this season's most proven commodities.

Senior Terrel Hunt sits atop the pre-camp depth chart after taking over as the starting quarterback four games into 2013. Hunt piloted the Orange to a 7-6 record, including a 7-3 mark in his 10 starts, and capped the year with an MVP performance versus Minnesota in the Texas Bowl. He accounted for 17 total touchdowns last season, passing for 1,638 yards and 10 scores. Hunt also showed the ability to make plays with his feet, finishing second on the team in rushing with 500 yards and seven more touchdowns.

Sophomores Austin Wilson, Mitch Kimble and freshman AJ Long are the most likely candidates to serve as Hunt's primary understudy. Wilson and Kimble spent last year learning the intricacies of coordinator George McDonald's up-tempo offense. Long got a jump on his college career by enrolling at Syracuse in January after earning all-state honors and winning two state titles at the Friendship Christian School in Tennessee.

Freshman Alin Edouard, rated one of the top dual-threat quarterbacks in his class, and sophomore walk-on Troy Green, the son former Orange All-American Tim Green, will also be in preseason camp.

2014 Quarterbacks

10	Terrel Hunt (Sr., 6-3, 233)
7	Troy Green (So., 6-0, 190)
3	Mitch Kimble (So., 6-3, 201)
5	Austin Wilson (So., 6-3, 210)
11	Alin Edouard (Fr., 6-1, 180)
4	AJ Long (Fr., 5-11, 175)

RUNNING BACKS

Syracuse boasts a stable of experienced backs with three players carried the ball at least 40 times last year returning. Leading the way is senior Prince-Tyson Gulley who rushed for 456 yards and four touchdowns in 2013. For his career, Gulley has amassed 1,449 yards and ranks in the top 10 all-time at Syracuse in career yards per carry (5.39). In addition to his ability to run with the football, Gulley is a staple in the Orange passing game. He ranks sixth at Syracuse for most career receptions by a running back (53) and caught 15 passes in 2013.

One of the most pleasant surprises of the spring was the emergence of senior Adonis Ameen-Moore as Gulley's primary backup. Ameen-Moore had just five carries last season, but was the star of SU's "Tank" package in 2012, scoring five short-yardage touchdowns.

Juniors George Morris II (79 carries, 334 yds, 1 TD) and Devante McFarlane (48 carries, 292 yds, 1 TD) are proven ball carriers. McFarlane was at his best against some of the stiffest competition last season, gaining a career-high 93 yards versus Clemson and churning out 81 yards against eventual national champion Florida State. McFarlane also made his mark in the kicking game, leading the Orange with 15 special teams tackles.

Morris battled through an injury to finish third on the squad in all-purpose yards (648), which included a team-best 294 yards in kick returns. Against Boston College, Morris rushed for 41 yards and scored his first career touchdown to help SU to a thrilling win against the Eagles.

Senior Greg Tobias adds depth to the group. Freshman Ervin Phillips set career records for rushing yards (4,596), touchdowns (88) and total yards (6,182) at Connecticut's West Haven High School.

2014 Running Backs

34	Adonis Ameen-Moore (Sr., 5-11, 260)
23	Prince-Tyson Gulley (Sr., 5-9, 195)
39	Greg Tobias (Sr., 5-10, 166)
29	Devante McFarlane (Jr., 6-0, 197)
27	George Morris II (Jr., 6-0, 202)
14	Ervin Phillips (Fr., 5-10, 171)

FULLBACK

The unsung heroes of most offenses, the fullbacks do the dirty work, mixing it up with defensive linemen and linebackers to help pave the way for the ground gainers.

Seniors Clay Cleveland and Travon Burke excel in that role. Cleveland played in every game last year and started at Northwestern when the Orange opened the game in a two-back set. He caught six passes on the season, including a pair of touchdowns in the team's 52-17 throttling of Tulane. Burke appeared in 11 contests, mainly on special teams.

2014 Fullbacks

32	Travon Burke (Sr., 6-1, 248)
31	Clay Cleveland (Sr., 6-1, 220)

WIDE RECEIVER

Offensive coordinator George McDonald added mentoring the receivers to his duties this off-season and he has a blend of veterans and talented newcomers with which to work.

Twenty of the 21 players, including eight of the nine wide receivers, who caught passes for the Orange last season are back. Senior Jarrod West (26 rec., 397 yds, 1 TD) has 85 career catches for 1,136 yards and figures to start on the outside. He will be joined on the first string by either Ashton Broyld, who set an Orange sophomore record with 52 receptions in 2013, or senior Adrian Flemming. Flemming is coming off a season-ending injury, but he was expected to be a major factor last year prior to getting hurt.

Sophomore Brisly Estime (28 rec., 257 yds, 1 TD) saw his role increase as the 2013 season progressed and has assumed the mantle of SU's No. 1 slot receiver. Estime was third on the team in catches and flashed his big-play potential with a 70-yard punt return to set up the game-winning touchdown in SU's Texas Bowl victory against Minnesota.

Senior Quinta Funderburk (3 rec., 50 yds) and junior Alvin Cornelius III (9 rec., 134 yds, 1 TD) will push for time at the outside receiver positions. Sophomores Sean Avant and Corey Winfield enter camp as the backups to Estime on the inside.

Jeremiah Kobena (16 rec., 206 yds), Keenan Hale and Frank Santos round out the senior members of the receiving corps. In addition to Broyld and Cornelius, the junior class also features Ben Lewis (1 rec., 7 yds).

Five freshmen will be in preseason camp. Corey Cooper enrolled in January and got his feet wet during Spring practice. Jamal Custis starred in the Philadelphia Catholic League at Neumann-Goretti High School, while Adly Enoicy and Steve Ishmael are the latest Florida products in the Orange receiving pipeline. KJ Williams was voted the Express-Times Player of the Year after catching 59 passes for 986 yards and 10 touchdowns at Liberty High School in Pennsylvania.

Senior Sean Hickey is a three-year starter who has played both right and left guard. He earned honorable mention All-ACC honors in 2013.

TIGHT END

It was one of the Orange's tight ends who made perhaps the biggest play of 2013.

Josh Parris caught an eight-yard touchdown pass with six seconds remaining to lift Syracuse to a 34-31 victory against Boston College and clinch a spot in a bowl game. It was one of two touchdowns for Parris (13 rec. 90 yds, 2 TDs) on the day who begins the preseason as the starter.

Sophomore Kendall Moore (6 rec., 65 yds) had a productive rookie season, while the development of classmate Tyler Provo has been a welcome sight for first-year tight ends coach Bobby Acosta. Provo is the younger brother of former SU standout Nick Provo, who holds the school record for most receptions by a tight end.

Provo isn't the only player at the position with family ties to the Orange football program. Junior Cameron MacPherson transferred to Syracuse and will sit out the 2014 season after playing two years at Georgetown. MacPherson is the younger brother of four-year letterwinner Macky MacPherson and the grandson of former Orange coach Dick MacPherson. Junior Jacob Green rounds out the tight end group.

87	Kendall Moore (So., 6-5, 248)
80	Tyler Provo (So., 6-3, 238)

OFFENSIVE LINE

New offensive line coach Joe Adam is tasked with putting together the Orange's front five and molding them into a cohesive unit. Priority No. 1 is replacing three-year starter Macky MacPherson in the middle.

In the spring, multiple players took turns handling the center duties and it was converted guard John Miller who won the job. A transfer from Los Angeles Harbor College, Miller played in five games last season as a reserve. Junior Jason Emerich will back up him up, along with freshman Donnie Foster.

Defensive ends Micah Robinson (93) and Rob Welsh return as the starters for 2014. The pair combined for 54 tackles, including 12.5 for a loss, last season.

The Orange's most experienced O-lineman is senior Sean Hickey. Hickey has started 26 straight games and anchors the unit at left tackle. Hickey worked at right tackle in 2012 before shifting to the left side in 2013 to replace NFL first-round draft choice Justin Pugh. Hickey continued to perform, earning all-conference honorable mention laurels from the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association (ACSMA).

At right tackle, junior Michael Lasker is listed as the starter with last year's first-stringer Ivan Foy behind him. Sophomore Jon Burton will compete with Lasker and Foy for playing time.

Returning starter Nick Robinson mans the right guard position. A Baldwinsville, N.Y. native, Robinson started all 13 games last season and helped clear the way for an SU rushing attack that ranked 38th in the nation. The coaches expect Chicago product Aaron Roberts to compete with Robinson right away as the freshman is listed as Robinson's primary backup heading into camp. Sophomore Alex Hayes and senior Jesse Wolf-Gould are the other right guard candidates.

Another player who took a step forward during the spring was left guard Omari Palmer. A key reserve who played nine games along offensive front in 2013, Palmer supplanted last year's starter Rob Trudo atop depth chart and will open camp as the starter. Trudo has 22 career starts to his credit and brings a veteran presence to the position as does junior Seamus Shanley.

DEFENSIVE LINE

The competition among the defensive line has been fierce. Several players have the opportunity step up and follow in the footsteps of recent Orange stars and curren NFL standouts Chandler Jones and Jay Bromley.

Two in particular are junior Marcus Coleman, who is likely to replace Bromley at defensive tackle, and Isaiah Johnson, Coleman's chief competition for the job. Johnson switched from end to tackle to stabilize the middle after making five tackles, including 1.5 sacks as a rookie. Johnson also had an acrobatic interception in last year's win against Wake Forest. Freshman Jalen Harvey and senior Ryan Sloan are also among the defensive tackle candidates.

Senior Eric Crume started 11 games and posted 28 tackles, including five for a loss, in 2013 and is team's first-string nose tackle. He will be pushed by junior Wayne Williams, who starred at Lincoln High School in New York City and ASA College before arriving at Syracuse in January. Freshman Kayton Samuels and John Raymon, who is working his way back into the rotation after suffering a season-ending leg injury at Georgia Tech, are quality reserves.

Three players are in the mix for SU's two starting defensive end spots. Senior Robert Welsh, a starter in 2013, is the team's leading returning tackler among defensive linemen. He had 32 stops last season. Senior Micah Robinson started all 13 games opposite Welsh and had 22 tackles. Junior Ron Thompson is battling both to be included with the first unit. Thompson, a converted tight end, was a force in his first year on defense. The 6-4, 250-pounder was consistently around the ball and finished with 20 tackles, including 4.5 for a loss of yards.

Seniors Trevon Trejo and Kennedy Kodua will serve as the backups at one end, while senior Donnie Simmons and freshman Chris Slayton, an all-state selection out of Illinois, bring depth to the other spot.

LINEBACKERS

Clark Lea's linebacking corps has been a position of strength recently and should be again in 2014 with two of last year's starters returning to the fold.

Senior Dyshawn Davis has been a fixture at outside linebacker since his rookie season and he ranks eighth at Syracuse with 31.5 career tackles for loss. Davis was the Orange's fourth-leading tackler in 2013 with 49 stops, including 33 solo. Classmate Cameron Lynch stepped into the starting lineup last year opposite Davis and made an immediate impact with 69 tackles, second on the team. Included in that number were 12 tackles for loss. Lynch also recorded a pair of interceptions.

This season's man in the middle is sophomore Marqez Hodge, who played eight games as a rookie, including three starts at outside linebacker. Hodge performed well, recording 23 tackles, including a career-high 12 stops against Georgia Tech. He replaces Marquis Spruill, who was a mainstay on the Orange defense his entire career.

Senior Josh Kirkland posted 30 tackles in 2013 and is the primary backup at Davis' spot. Freshmen Jonathan Thomas from Collins Hill High School (Ga.), Parris Bennett out of Detroit Jesuit (Mich.) High School and converted tight end P.J. Batten are also listed behind Davis.

Bennett is learning both outside positions as he is penciled in to work at Lynch's spot, also. Freshman Zaire Franklin, who was selected for the Big 33 Classic and was an all-state selection at La Salle College High (Pa.), and sophomore Alryk Perry bring depth.

Senior Luke Arciniega will compete for playing time at middle linebacker, along with classmate Oliver Vigille, junior Hernz Laguerre and Lake Zurich High School (Ill.) product freshman Colton Moskal.

SECONDARY

There will be some new faces in the defensive backfield as secondary coach Fred Reed has retooled the group after the loss of three starters.

Senior Brandon Reddish and junior Julian Whigham are slated to start at corner with the departures of Keon Lyn and Ri'Shard Anderson. Reddish gained first-string experience last year, making seven starts after Lyn was injured, and had 36 tackles. Whigham was also a regular contributor. He had 12 tackles and ranked second on the Orange with three interceptions. Junior Wayne Morgan will push Whigham for time. SU's other cornerback candidates are rookies Cordell Hudson, Juwan Dowels and Antwan Cordy, special teams ace Joe Nassib, junior Eric Jackson and sophomores Joe Stanard and Alex Schoen.

Last year's leading tackler Durell Eskridge is the starter at field safety. An All-ACC performer in 2013, Eskridge racked up 78 tackles and a team-high four interceptions. Sophomore Chauncey Scissum, senior Jaston George and freshman Rodney Williams, an All-South Jersey selection from Cherry Hill West High School will fill in behind Eskridge.

Seniors Darius Kelly and Ritchy Desir are the favorites at boundary safety. Both players made at least 40 tackles last season as key components of the rotation. Kelly had 44 stops and three pass breakups. Desir registered 47 tackles, including a career-high 11 in SU's win at Maryland. He was also the Orange's primary punt returner.

Junior Josh Mims, sophomore Eric Anthony and freshman Naesean Howard round out the safeties. Howard is another local product, earning all-state plaudits at West Genesee High School near Syracuse.

Junior Durell Eskridge is one of many experienced returners in the secondary. The Miami, Fla. native led the 2013 Orange in tackles (78) and interceptions (4).

SPECIAL TEAMS

Senior Ross Krautman is back as the Orange's top placekicker after missing most of 2013 due to injury. Krautman is tied for third in school history for the most field goals made (49), tied for fifth in attempts (63) and owns the second-best career field-goal percentage (.778). He is also fifth on the program's all-time scoring list (257 points).

After a breakout 2013 campaign, senior Riley Dixon enters camp as the Orange's No. 1 punter. He is also expected to handle the kickoff duties. Dixon averaged 42.1 yards per punt last season, seventh in the ACC. He finished third on SU's single-season list with 3,161 punting yards, including a school-record boot of 75 yards versus Clemson.

Both junior Ryan Norton, who connected on 10-of-15 (.667) field goals while filling in for Krautman last season, and freshman walk-on Cole Murphy will back up Krautman on field goals and Dixon on kickoffs. Another walk-on, freshman Evan Jakubowski, is Dixon's punting understudy.

Senior Sam Rodgers enters his fourth year as the team's long snapper. Junior Keith Mitsuuchi and freshman walk-on Nathan Hines are competing to be Rodgers' top backup.

He is going to make it an environment that's fun to be in – the coaches are going to love to come to work every day and the players are going to love to come to practice every day. 2013 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME #1

Syracuse 17
vs. Penn State 23

August 31 at MetLife Stadium • East Rutherford, N.J.

Syracuse started the Scott Shafer era with a 23-17 loss to Penn State in the second New York's College Classic. Junior captain Jerome Smith was responsible for both Orange touchdowns, scoring on runs of 10 yards and one yard in the second half. Smith finished the game with 16 carries for 73 yards.

Senior Drew Allen got the starting nod at quarterback for Syracuse and threw for 189 yards on 16-of-37 passing. He was intercepted twice, including one on third down with 1:53 remaining that ended any hope of an Orange comeback.

The SU defense had an impressive day, forcing four Penn State turnovers (two fumbles and two interceptions). Linebacker Marquis Spruill and defensive end Robert Welsh each had sacks. Welsh also set up Smith's second touchdown, running back an interception 31 yards to the Penn State 1-yard line in the fourth quarter. Cameron Lynch led the team with a game-high 10 tackles.

As a unit, the Syracuse defense held the Nittany Lions to 1-for-16 (.063) on third down to help keep the Orange within striking distance.

The Orange opened the game's scoring when Ross Krautman kicked a 32-yard field goal on the first SU drive of the second quarter, giving SU 3-0 lead with 12:32 left in the first half.

Penn State responded with two Sam Ficken field goals in the final six minutes of the second quarter, a 36-yarder and a 35-yarder, to claim a 6-3 halftime advantage.

PSU extended the margin to 13-3 on their first drive of the second half as quarterback Christian Hackenberg hit Allen Robinson for a 51-yard touchdown.

On the ensuing possession, George Morris II returned the kickoff 35 yards, and Allen hooked up with Jeremiah Kobena on a 55-yard pass, to get the Orange into scoring position. Smith finished the drive with a 10-yard run into the end zone, and Krautman's PAT closed the gap to 13-10 with 11:05 left in the third quarter.

Syracuse had an opportunity to tie the game after corner Brandon Reddish stripped Robinson and returned the fumble 46 yards to the Penn State 27. The SU offense only managed one yard on three plays and Krautman's 43-yard field goal try was wide.

In the fourth quarter, Ficken hit a career-long 46-yard field goal to give the Nittany Lions a 16-10 advantage with 14:16 left to play. PSU's next drive ended with a 54-yard touchdown pass from Hackenberg to Eugene Lewis to make the score 23-10.

After Welsh's interception and run back, Smith pushed his way into the end zone for six points and Krautman's PAT trimmed the Nittany Lion lead to 23-17 with 6:58 left.

The Orange defense forced three-and-outs on Penn State's next two series to give Allen and the offense two more opportunities to tie the game or take the lead. The first SU drive ended in a punt. On the second, PSU's Trevor Williams intercepted Allen with 1:53 on the clock sealing the victory for the Nittany Lions.

GAME #5

Syracuse	14
vs. Clemson	49

October 5 at Carrier Dome • Syracuse, N.Y.

In its inaugural ACC game, Syracuse had its six-game Carrier Dome win streak stopped by No. 3 Clemson 49-14 in front 48,961 fans, the largest home crowd for the Orange since November of 2000. Syracuse rushed for 323 yards, sparked by Jerome Smith (125 yards) and Devante McFarlane (95 yards). Clemson's Tajh Boyd matched his own school record, tossing five touchdown passes to lead the Tigers.

Ashton Broyld led all Orange receivers with five catches for a career-high 64 yards. Terrel Hunt completed eight of his 24 passes for 52 yards and rushed for 57 yards on 13 carries. Hunt also made his first career reception in the game on a throw-back pass from Broyld.

The SU defense tallied eight tackles for a loss, including four sacks. Marquis Spruill led all SU defenders with nine tackles, all solo, including two for a loss. The SU secondary intercepted Boyd twice, including one by Julian Whigham in the second quarter to end Boyd's school-record streak of 187 passes without a pick.

Boyd completed 20-of-27 passes for 455 yards in the contest. Sammy Watkins led the Clemson receiving unit, catching four passes for 126 yards, including a 91-yard TD reception in the third quarter. Adam Humphries caught a pair of touchdowns for the Tigers. He finished with three receptions for 118 yards.

Clemson was the first to score when Boyd hit Humphries for a 60-yard touchdown 37 seconds into the contest. The Tigers got a one-yard TD run from Zac Brooks, and Boyd connected with Humphries for another long touchdown, this one 42 yards, to go up 21-0 at the end of the first quarter.

After breaking free for a first down in the final seconds of the first period, Smith escaped the Tiger defense again on the next play and ran 66 yards into the end zone to put the Orange on the board nine seconds into the second quarter, trimming the Clemson margin to 21-7.

Boyd responded with TD passes to Stanton Seckinger and Martavis Bryant to give the visitors a 35-7 margin at the half.

In the third quarter, Prince-Tyson Gulley found a hole in the Clemson defense and ran 28 yards for a touchdown with 12:31 remaining to close the gap to 35-14.

The Orange tried to inch closer later in the period, faking a punt on 4th-and-9. The play worked to perfection as McFarlane ran 38 yards deep into Clemson territory, but SU couldn't capitalize on the drive and the Tigers took advantage on the ensuing series as Boyd threw a 91-yard bomb to Watkins to extend the Clemson lead to 42-14. The Tigers added a late touchdown in the fourth quarter to produce the final score.

GAME #6

Syracuse	24
at NC State	10

October 12 at Carter-Finley Stadium • Raleigh, N.C.

The Orange scored two late touchdowns to pull away from NC State, defeating the Wolfpack 24-10 in front of 56,639 at Carter-Finley Stadium. The victory marked the team's first conference win as a member of the ACC.

Syracuse rushed for a season-high 362 yards in the contest and averaged 9.1 yards per rush. Jerome Smith and Prince-Tyson Gulley powered the Orange attack. Smith gained 140 yards on 19 carries and Gulley finished with 132 yards on nine attempts. Both running backs had one touchdown and broke off runs of at least 50 yards during the course of the game. Quarterback Terrel Hunt contributed 92 yards on the ground, the highest rushing total for an SU signal caller since Donovan McNabb (99 yards) versus Miami on Nov. 28, 1998.

Hunt completed 10-of-20 passes for 74 yards through the air. He was intercepted twice by NC State's Jack Tocho. Ashton Broyld paced all Orange receivers with three catches for 43 yards, including a career-long 39-yard reception in the second quarter.

Two Orange defenders had career days with Cameron Lynch posting a career- and game-high 14 tackles, including two for a loss. Durell Eskridge made 13 stops and intercepted his second pass of the season.

Syracuse opened the game's scoring on the first drive of the second quarer. Hunt found an opening in the NC State defense and scrambled 17 yards to the 1-yard line. Smith finished things off, pushing his way into the end zone to give the visitors a 7-0 lead with 11:11 to go in the half.

Later in the quarter, the two sides exchanged interceptions on three consecutive drives. NC State capitalized on SU's second turnover when Pete Thomas hit David Grinnage for a 21-yard touchdown to tie the score just before halftime.

In the second half, the two teams exchanged field goals, including a 27-yarder by the Wolfpack's Niklas Sade that knotted the game 10-10 with 10:12 left to play.

After the SU defense forced a punt on the next Wolfpack possession, Smith sprinted 57 yards down to the NC State 18-yard line. Gulley scampered to paydirt on the next play for a 16-10 SU advantage. A bad snap on the extra-point resulted in a failed pass from holder Charley Loeb to Kendall Moore and the score remained 16-10.

The Syracuse defense forced a three-and-out on the next Wolfpack series and the Orange took over on its own 47. A 48-yard burst by Gulley put the ball on the NC State 5-yard line. Two plays later Hunt sealed the victory, scoring from eight yards out.

For NC State, Thomas was 17-for-35 for 151 yards and a touchdown. Bryan Underwood led the Wolfpack receiving corps with six catches for 89 yards.

After a false start pushed SU back to the six, Hunt dove into the end zone on a quarterback keeper to put the hosts on top, 6-0, with 8:58 left in the third, capping a 14-play drive. Jonathan Fisher added the first extra point of his career to make it 7-0 Orange.

Later in the quarter, Johnson batted a Price pass up in in the air and made a diving interception at the Wake Forest 25. On the next play, Hunt handed off to Gulley, running left. He flipped the ball to West and the junior receiver launched a pass to Estime who was wide open in the corner of the end zone. Fisher's PAT was blocked and score remained 13-0.

The Orange defense did the rest, holding Wake to a total of four first downs on its final five possessions to seal the victory and improve to 3-1 at home this season.

The Eagles closed the gap to 21-14 at halftime on a nine-yard touchdown pass from Chase Rettig to C.J. Parsons with 40 seconds remaining in the second quarter. The Eagles struck again on their opening drive of the third quarter to tie the game, 21-21, as Rettig connected with Jake Sinkovec for a nine-yard score at the 9:56 mark of the third stanza.

The Orange answered late in the quarter with a 42-yard field goal by Ryan Norton with 3:44 remaining to go back in front, 24-21.

Boston College regained the lead midway through the fourth quarter when Rettig leaped into the end zone from the one to make the score 28-24 Eagles with 7:49 to play. A Norton 44-yard field goal with 5:03 to go trimmed the margin to 28-27, but a Hunt interception led to a Nate Freese 21-yard field goal and a 31-27 BC lead.

With 2:08 left and no timeouts, Hunt completed passes to Parris and Alvin Cornelius to quickly get the Orange near midfield. An eight-yard Hunt run and a BC penalty for pass interference put the ball on the Eagles' 33-yard line. Hunt took off running again on the next play. He was corralled by a host of BC defenders and the ball came loose. Center Macky MacPherson alertly jumped on it at the BC 25 to keep SU's hopes alive. Four plays later, on first-and-goal, Hunt delivered a strike to Parris on a tight-end throwback and Parris bulled his way into the end zone for the winning points.

GAME #12

Syracuse	21
vs. Minnesota	17

December 27 at Reliant Stadium • Houston, Texas

Quarterback Terrel Hunt scored a last-minute touchdown to lift Syracuse to a 21-17 victory against Minnesota in the Texas Bowl. Hunt scored from 12 yards out with 1:14 remaining, and the Orange defense held firm on the Gophers' final drive as SU won its third bowl game in four years. Hunt was named the Texas Bowl Most Valuable Player. He set an SU bowl record with 19 completions, finishing the game 19-of-29 passing for 188 yards. He also tied for team-high rushing honors with 74 yards on 15 carries and two touchdowns.

After a scoreless first quarter, Hunt led the Orange on an 80-yard touchdown drive, capped by a Jerome Smith one-yard touchdown run. Ryan Norton's extra point put SU up 7-0 with 10:04 remaining in the first half.

That's how the score remained until the end of the second quarter when Minnesota's Chris Hawthorne kicked a 41-yard field goal as time expired to trim the SU margin to 7-3.

In the third quarter, Hunt extended the SU advantage to 14-3 on a five-yard touchdown run, capping a 15-play scoring drive. The sophomore QB converted a key fourth-and-8 to keep the drive alive, running for nine yards down to the Minnesota 17. Three plays later, he was in the end zone and the Orange lead was 11 points.

The Gophers answered with a Mitch Leidner 20-yard scoring pass to Maxx Williams on the opening play of the fourth quarter for Minnesota's first touchdown. The Gophers tried for two, but the SU defense smothered Leidner before he could get off a throw and the score stayed 14-9 with 14:55 remaining in the game.

Minnesota claimed its first lead of the on its next possession as Leidner connected with Drew Wolitarsky for a 55-yard touchdown to put the Gophers in front, 15-14. This time Minnesota's two-point try was successful, stretching the lead to 17-14.

After the two teams traded punts, the Orange had an opportunity to tie the game with less than four minutes left, but Norton's 45-yard field goal attempt was wide right.

On the ensuing Minnesota possession, SU shrewdly used its timeouts to slow the Gophers' momentum, and a timely sack by Robert Welsh on third-and-5 from the Minnesota 32 forced a punt. That set the stage for Brisly Estime, who returned the ensuing punt 70 yards to the Gopher 14-yard line.

Prince-Tyson Gulley picked up seven yards on two runs, but a false start penalty on third-and-3 backed the Orange up to the 12. On the next play, Hunt dropped back to pass then scrambled up the middle and into the end zone for the go-ahead points.

The Gophers had one last chance, driving to the SU 40-yard line with less than 25 seconds left. Leidner heaved the ball deep twice, but Brandon Reddish and Ritchy Desir were there to break up the passes and the Orange prevailed.

SUccess Stories

Wilmeth Sidat-Singh

One of the greatest student-athletes in Syracuse University history, Wilmeth Sidat-Singh '39 was also an individual of extraordinary courage. Sidat-Singh starred for the Orange football and basketball squads, despite being subjected to racial bias. After earning his degree in zoology from SU, Sidat-Singh played professional basketball. The NFL ban on African-American players eliminated pro football as an option.

The University honored the memory of Sidat-Singh by retiring Singh's #19 basketball jersey in 2005.

In 1943, Sidat-Singh passed the entrance exam for the U.S. Army Air Corps and was assigned to the segregated armed forces' only pilots training program for African Americans: the Tuskegee Airmen. Just days after earning his pilot's wings, Sidat-Singh was on a training mission, when the engine of his P-40 failed, forcing him to parachute into Lake Huron. His body was found a week later. First Lieutenant Wilmeth Sidat-Singh, U.S. Army Air Corps, is buried at Arlington National Cemetery.

"Wilmeth Sidat-Singh was a pioneer in everything that he did," said SU Assistant Vice President for Program Development Larry Martin. "He was a remarkable individual, a two-sport star and an outstanding student. Until now, his story has only been known to a few."

An All-New York City basketball player at DeWitt Clinton High School, Sidat-Singh led his Bronx team to the Public School Athletic League (PSAL) city championship in 1933-34. Despite his talent and credentials, Syracuse University was the only school to offer him a scholarship. At SU, the six-foot, 190-pound Sidat-Singh led the Orange to three straight winning seasons.

A hero and leader on campus, Sidat-Singh also joined the football team in his sophomore year after assistant coach Roy Simmons Sr. spotted him throwing a 55-yard pass, flat-footed, in an intramural game. He was subject to the indignities plaguing many African-Americans when the Orange traveled to southern states to play. Officials from some of the schools SU traveled to play prevented Sidat-Singh from playing, citing segregation laws. He was banned from the 1937 game at Maryland, which the Orange lost 13-0. One year later, when the teams met in Archbold Stadium, Sidat-Singh helped SU to a 53-0 triumph against the Terrapins. He played halfback in Syracuse's single-wing offense, a position similar to today's quarterback.

In an article for The Syracusan magazine, Don Hallock '38 described the pre-med zoology major as "an omnivorous reader…more interested in a sheepskin than a pigskin."

Sidat-Singh's Syracuse football teammates included Hugh "Duffy" Daugherty '39, the storied head coach at Michigan State, and Marty Glickman '39, the radio voice of New York City sports for half a century. In 1938, legendary sportswriter Grantland Rice came to Syracuse to scout Rose Bowl-bound Cornell. After watching Sidat-Singh engineer a stunning 19-17 upset for Syracuse — including six passes for 150 yards and three touchdowns in the final nine minutes — Rice ranked Sidat-Singh with Sid Luckman and Sammy Baugh, the greatest throwing arms of the era.

After graduation, Sidat-Singh played with the Syracuse Reds, one of the few racially integrated professional basketball teams of the barnstorming era. On December 1, 1939, the Reds defeated the Original Celtics 40-37 in Watertown, New York. Sidat-Singh scored 14. A year later, he joined the Harlem Renaissance (or "Rens"), the most famous of the African American barnstorming teams.

Sidat-Singh was born Wilmeth Webb, the son of Elias Webb, a Washington pharmacist, and Pauline Webb. Both of his parents were African Americans. Elias Webb died when Wilmeth was a child. Pauline Webb then married Dr. Samuel Sidat-Singh, then a medical student who had come to the United States to study at Howard University. Dr. Sidat-Singh adopted Wilmeth and moved the family to West 135th Street in Harlem, where he practiced family medicine for many years.

Rick Cassata handed the ball off to three great backs in 1966, including Floyd Little, Tom Coughlin and Larry Csonka. All-Americans Little and Csonka led the Orange to an 8-3 record and berth in the Gator Bowl. The pair earned enshrinement in the College Football and the Pro Football Halls of Fame, while Coughlin is the head coach of the two-time Super Bowl Champion New York Giants.

The Syracuse special teams unit set a school record as it accumulated 662 punt return yards.

1942
Winning the first five games of the season, the Orange were ranked as high as 15th as it went on to finish with a 6-3 record.

1943
Syracuse University suspended intercollegiate sports due to World War II.

1944
The Orange finished with a 2-4-1 record, including a game against Boston College at the well-known Fenway Park in Boston.

1945
Ossie Solom concluded his eight-year SU coaching stint, guiding the Orange to a 1-6 record. He had a 30-27-6 overall record.

1946
Future College Football Hall of Fame coach Clarence L. "Biggie" Munn served as the Orange head coach. Munn went on to coach at Michigan State. A member of Munn's coaching staff, Hugh "Duffy" Daugherty, was also inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame, in 1984. The Orange program enjoyed its 300th overall win, a 28-7 victory against Temple.

1947
Reaves Baysinger became head coach and promptly changed the Orange's uniform from a blue jersey with orange numbers to white to go along with the khaki moleskin pants. He led SU to a 3-6 record.

1948
In the final year for head coach Reaves Baysinger, the Orange posted a 1-8 record.

1949
Ben Schwartzwalder was hired as head coach after the Orange had just completed its fifth straight losing season.

1950
With three interceptions against Penn State, Avatus Stone set the school record for most pass interceptions in one game. Two others (Tommy Myers, 1970, and Markus Paul, 1985) have since tied that mark.

1951
In a game against LaFayette, the SU defense forced a school-record nine turnovers.

1952
Tackle Robert Fleck earned All-America honors, leading Syracuse to a 7-2 record and its first bowl game. SU lost to Alabama, 61-6, in the Orange Bowl. Future Professional Football Hall of Fame center Jim Ringo concluded his three-year SU career.

1953
Robert Fleck moved to guard and earned his second consecutive All-America award as the Orange finished 5-3-1 during head coach Ben Schwartzwalder's fifth season at the helm.

1954
A halfback from Long Island, well down on the pre-season depth chart, was issued jersey number 44. His name was Jim Brown.

1955
The Syracuse defense shined as it only allowed 35 pass completions on 95 attempts – still SU records for the fewest completions and attempts by opponents in SU football history. Against Army, the Orange did not allow a completion.

1956
With a bowl bid on the line in the regular season finale versus Colgate, Jim Brown scored an NCAA record 43 points in SU's 61-7 victory. The Orange finished the regular season with a 7-1 record, earning an invitation to the Cotton Bowl, where it lost to TCU, 28-27. Brown broke the SU rushing record with 986 yards and earned first team All-America honors. He went on to a hall of fame career with the NFL's Cleveland Browns after he was the sixth overall selection by Cleveland in the 1957 NFL Draft. In 1995, Brown was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

1957
Syracuse recorded the 350th win in the program's history with a 26-9 victory against Nebraska.

1958
Tackle Ronald Luciano earned All-America honors, leading the Orange to an 8-2 record and an Orange Bowl appearance. SU lost to Oklahoma, 21-6.

1959 • NATIONAL CHAMPIONS
Undefeated, untied, and national champions, the Orange capped off an 11-0 season with its first bowl win, a 23-14 victory against Texas in the Cotton Bowl. Syracuse enjoyed its finest time on the gridiron, pulverizing its foes both offensively and defensively. The defense allowed a mind-boggling 193 yards rushing in 10 games. On offense, the Orange averaged 451 yards per game. Three SU student-athletes earned All-America honors, including guard Roger Davis, end Fred Mautino and tackle Robert Yates. Davis was the seventh overall selection by the Chicago Bears in the 1960 NFL Draft.

1960
Ernie Davis earned the first of two All-America awards playing halfback for the 7-2 Orange. The Philadelphia Eagles selected fullback Art Baker with the 14th overall pick in the 1961 NFL Draft.

1961
Ernie Davis won the Heisman Trophy, becoming the first African-American to receive college football's most prestigious award. Along the way, he broke Jim Brown's SU career rushing record and closed his career by leading the Orange to a Liberty Bowl win against Miami. Less than two years later, Davis died of leukemia. Davis was the top pick in the 1962 NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins (who traded his rights to Cleveland) and in the 1962 AFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills. In 1979 Davis was enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame.

The Syracuse Eight

In 1970, a group of Syracuse University football team members, known today as the "Syracuse 8", showed extraordinary courage and commitment by calling for the equal treatment of student-athletes and a diverse coaching staff. As talented scholarship athletes, these men were aware of the potential consequences of their actions. Despite this risk, they took a strong, principled stand. When their calls for action were not honored, they made the difficult decision to leave the team and give up a game they loved and the potential professional success it could bring.

Syracuse University honors the courage and commitment of these men to stand up for the principles of fairness and equality – and today they stand as a beacon for us as we work each day toward a more just university, community and society.

Although mistakenly dubbed the "Syracuse 8" by media reports in 1970, the group included nine individuals. They are Gregory Allen '72, Richard Bulls '73, John Godbolt '73, Dana Harrell '71, G '73, John Lobon '73, Clarence "Bucky" McGill '72, A. Alif Muhammad '71, Duane Walker '80 and Ron Womack '71.

At a special ceremony in October, 2006, Syracuse University Chancellor and President Nancy Cantor awarded these former Orange football players SU's Chancellor's Medal.

"These events celebrate the courage and determination of the 'Syracuse 8' to stand up for their values and principles, even in the face of great personal sacrifice," Cantor said. "These alumni are emblematic of the values we want for our students and for ourselves when we face critical issues of justice and equality. Their courage 36 years ago stands today as a beacon and lesson for all of us as we continue to strive for a more just university, community and society."

The group was also recognized at halftime of the Syracuse football game against Louisville the next day. During the ceremony the group was presented with their SU Letterman's jackets, which they never received after leaving the team.

"This is an awesome recognition of men who stood up for something they truly believed would make the world a better place," said SU Director of Athletics Daryl Gross. "These are men who sacrificed playing the sport they loved to stimulate conversation and action that would create change and needed awareness. This is a celebration of their tremendous courage, commitment and bravery. This is about welcoming back our family and recognizing."

In 2005, several of the players returned to campus for a special panel discussion on the events surrounding the "Syracuse 8." Following that event, alumnus Art Monk '80 led an effort to create a special University committee to consider, and ultimately plan, a formal SU recognition and honoring of the group. Committee members included Monk, Gregory Allen '72, Dave Bing '66, Peter J. Estrada '82, Daryl Gross, Carmen Harlow '78, John L. Johnson, Floyd Little '67, John Lobon '73, Larry Martin, Angela Y. Robinson '78, Diane M. Weathers '71, Barry L. Wells and Roosevelt R. "Rick" Wright Jr. G'93.

Monk, Robinson and Weathers were among those participating in the Chancellor's 2006 medal ceremony.

Sophomore half back Floyd Little, who was recruited to SU by 1961 Heisman Trophy winner Ernie Davis, earned All-America honors in his first season. Center Patrick Killorin also earned All-America honors. The program celebrated it's 400th win -- a 38-6 victory against Kansas.

1965
All-Americans Floyd Little (halfback), Charles Brown (defensive halfback) and Patrick Killorin (center) led the Orange to a 7-4 record, including a 13-10 loss to Louisiana State in the Sugar Bowl. The Tigers kicked a field goal with 3:50 left in the game for the victory. In the loss, Jim Nance rushed for 70 yards, while Little had 46.

The Legend of Archbold Stadium

Upon its completion in 1907, Archbold Stadium was touted as the "Greatest Athletic Arena in America." Designed to resemble the Roman Coliseum and to never become outdated, Archbold Stadium was a trademark of Syracuse Orange football.

"Athletic contests may come and go but the recently completed concrete stadium at Syracuse University will endure forever," stated Dr. Charles Burrows of Technical World Magazine upon viewing Archbold Stadium in 1909.

From 1907 until 1978 the Orange battled for victory inside the walls of Archbold Stadium. It served as the site for many thrilling Orange victories, numerous record-breaking performances – and even a few heart-breaking defeats. But the history of this legendary stadium begins with the vision of generosity of a single man.

John D. Archbold's gift of $600,000 to the University in 1905 made stadium construction a reality. Archbold was the vice president of Standard Oil and the president of SU's Board of Trustees from 1892 until his death in 1916. The stadium bared his name.

Construction of the stadium began in September of 1906 and was completed only ten months later. A natural hollow on the west side of the SU campus provided the perfect site (the Carrier Dome currently occupies this area). Archbold Stadium was situated at a great height, which granted fans of that day a clear view of downtown Syracuse, Onondaga Lake and the beautiful Onondaga Valley.

The stadium's front entrance defined the character of Archbold. Located on the west end, the main entrance consisted of an impressive 40-foot cement arch and two epic towers, which extended high above the archway. On the north side of the stadium, Archbold's bowl-like design enabled fans to arrive in horse-drawn carriages and enter directly at the promenade level.

Upon its completion, critics believed the stadium was impractical and argued that it would never be filled. Originally designed to accommodate a crowd of 20,000, Archbold rarely reached capacity in its initial years. But, twice that number squeezed into the stadium in the 1950s and 1960s. In the end more than six million fans attended the classic stadium to watch football, and past critics were silenced.

In addition to providing the university and its fans with an aesthetically beautiful stadium, Archbold granted the Orange football team a distinct home field advantage. The Orange went 265-112-20 all-time at Archbold. From 1915 to 1927, Syracuse achieved a home record of 61-10-6. Then, during the 11-year stretch from 1958-1968, SU won 47 and lost only six games played at Archbold.

For 71 years Archbold Stadium treated fans to the best that collegiate football had to offer. It began in 1907 with the 'sound drubbing' of Hobart, 28-0. It ended in 1978 with an incredible 20-17 victory against nationally-ranked Navy.

In the final game played at Archbold Stadium, it was a freshman named Joe Morris who stole the show. Facing a tough Navy defense, Morris carried the ball 31 times for 203 yards. Morris helped the Orange upset second-ranked Navy, 20-17. And more importantly, the Orange sent Archbold Stadium out in style.

1966
Halfback Floyd Little and fullback Larry Csonka, the greatest 1-2 running punch in Orange annals, led the team to an 8-3 record and a Gator Bowl berth. Little set an SU bowl game record with 216 yards and Csonka added 114, in the 18-12 loss to Tennessee. Little, Csonka and tackle Gary Bugenhagen earned All-America honors. The AFL's Denver Broncos selected Little with the sixth overall pick in the 1967 league draft. Despite the obstacles, future NFL players Joe Morris, Art Monk, Bill Hurley, Craig Wolfley, Gary Anderson and Jim Collins led SU to its first bowl berth since 1967. Monk earned All-America honors for his effort as a wide receiver and was the 18th overall selection in the NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins.

Sept. 20 marked the beginning of a new era with the opening of the Carrier Dome. Joe Morris scored four touchdowns and had a record 300 all-purpose yards as the Orange christened its new home with a 36-24 win against Miami of Ohio. An all-time Syracuse record crowd of 50,564 witnessed the event.

SU's sensational quarterback Don McPherson finished second in the Heisman race, but earned several other player of the year and All-America honors. In addition, nose guard Ted Gregory was named an All-American and was the 26th overall selection in the 1988 NFL Draft by the Denver Broncos, and head coach Dick MacPherson was the consensus National Coach of the Year.

The Orange finished the regular season with a 7-4-2 record and an invitation to the Aloha Bowl in Honolulu. SU put the finishing touches on its fourth-straight bowl by shutting out Arizona, 28-0, behind freshman quarterback Marvin Graves. The Wildcats had not been shut out in 20 seasons (214 games), the second longest streak in NCAA history. Center John Flannery was named an All-American for the second year in a row.

1991
Paul Pasqualoni replaced Dick MacPherson as head coach and SU joined The BIG EAST Football Conference. Pasqualoni led the Orange to a 10-2 record, a perfect 5-0 BIG EAST record, and a 24-17 win against Ohio State in the Hall of Fame Bowl on New Year's Day. The 10 wins for a rookie coach has been surpassed just 12 times in the history of major college football. Qadry Ismail became SU's first-ever All-American in the kick return position and the school's first two-sport All-American since Jim Brown. Ismail's second honor was in track & field, while Brown's was for his excellence in lacrosse.

1992
Pasqualoni and the Orange again won 10 games and made SU's second straight New Year's Day bowl appearance, knocking off Colorado, 26-22, at the Fiesta Bowl in Tempe. It was the fifth-straight bowl win for Syracuse, the second-best streak in the country behind Florida State. Tight end Chris Gedney was a unanimous All-America selection.

1993
Another year, another winning season as the Orange finished with a 6-4-1 overall record for its seventh straight winning season. Breaking records was a regular occurrence during the campaign. Marvin Graves set new marks in almost every passing and total offensive category, while Shelby Hill, Pat O'Neill and Kevin Mitchell also left their names in the Syracuse record books.

1994
In keeping with the tone in the recent past, the Orange recorded an eighth straight winning season, finishing 7-4 overall. The passing combination of Kevin Mason to Marvin Harrison was prominent throughout the year, while the return of linebacker Dan Conley for a sixth season of competition after numerous knee surgeries was a story of perseverance and dedication.

1995
A young Syracuse team posted a 9-3 season and a victory in the Toyota Gator Bowl. The emergence of Donovan McNabb from a crowded young quarterback battle and his immediate chemistry with receiver Marvin Harrison provided thrills and records, as Harrison established himself as one of the all-time great receivers and kick returners at Syracuse, earning All-America honors as a kick returner. The receiver was the 19th overall player selected in the 1996 NFL Draft, taken by the Indianapolis Colts. Defensively, cornerback Kevin Abrams was an All-American.

1996
Despite getting off to an 0-2 start, the Orange won a share of The BIG EAST Conference title and once again was among the nation's elite. A mid-season eight game win streak earned the Orange another post-season berth. Syracuse beat Houston in the Liberty Bowl for its seventh-consecutive bowl victory, which was the nation's longest active bowl win streak at the time. Cornerback Kevin Abrams earned All-America honors for the second year in a row.

The Legend of 44

Legends Jim Brown, Floyd Little, Ernie Davis' mother, Marie Fleming, Rob Konrad and Michael Owens were with Director of Athletics Dr. Daryl Gross (right) at the ceremony to retire #44 in 2005.

Number 44 at Syracuse University is one of the most storied numbers ever associated with a college football program. Like tailbacks at USC, quarterbacks at Brigham Young and linebackers at Penn State, the running back position at Syracuse has a rich tradition of greatness. Much of that greatness has revolved around one jersey number — 44.

On November 12, 2005, the number was retired. It is permanently displayed in the Carrier Dome, honoring the legends who have worn it for the Orange.

Since 1954, 11 players have worn the number and three are in the College Football Hall of Fame. Those three — Jim Brown, Ernie Davis and Floyd Little — certainly rank among the finest running backs to ever play the game.

Brown, who played at SU from 1954-56 and led the team to a Cotton Bowl berth, went on to become the NFL's all-time leading rusher and a member of the Pro and College Football Halls of Fame. He led the league in rushing eight times in his nine years. Many still point to him as the greatest running back of all time. Among Brown's accomplishments at Syracuse was setting an NCAA single-game record of 43 points against Colgate in a 61-6 SU win.

Davis played for the Orange from 1959-61. He won the 1961 Heisman Trophy, becoming the first African-American to do so, and was a starter on SU's 1959 national championship team. Davis also signed to play with the Cleveland Browns, but the devastating combination of Davis and Brown in the same backfield never came to pass. Davis died of leukemia in 1963. He was later inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

Little was a three-time All-America selection for the Orange. Little played for SU from 1964-66 and led the team to the Sugar Bowl in 1964 and the Gator Bowl in 1966 (teaming in the backfield with Larry Csonka in the latter). Little was the greatest kick returner in Orange history.

In addition to breaking the records of Brown and Davis, he led the nation in all-purpose yardage in 1965, averaging 199 yards per game. Little went on to have a tremendous career with the Denver Broncos, winning back-to-back rushing titles in 1970-71. He, too, is enshrined in the Pro and College Football Halls of Fame.

Syracuse won its first-ever outright BIG EAST championship, clinched by a triumphant 33-18 victory at Miami. After opening the season with a 34-0 victory against Wisconsin in the Kickoff Classic, the Orange lost three straight games. SU then defeated Tulane to ignite an eight game winning streak. The Orange played its first overtime game in school history, against North Carolina State in the Dome. A 35-18 loss to Kansas State in the Fiesta Bowl did not detract from the fact that the Orange was one of six teams to earn a Bowl Alliance bid. Free safety Donovin Darius was an All-America selection.

1998

SU started the season hosting eventual national champion Tennessee. After a 34-33 loss, the Orange defeated defending national champion Michigan in Ann Arbor the following week, 38-28. From there, SU went 7-3, winning its second outright BIG EAST title, and third in a row, and earned a Bowl Alliance bid, facing Florida in the Orange Bowl. Donovan McNabb was selected with the second overall pick by the Philadelphia Eagles in the 1999 NFL Draft, the highest spot ever for a Syracuse quarterback. Kick returner Kevin Johnson earned All-America honors.

1999

Syracuse earned a bowl invitation for the fifth straight year and the 11th time in the last 13 years. The Orange posted a 7-5 record in the final season of the millennium. The Orange kicked it off with two victories and closed the century with a 20-13 victory against Kentucky in the Music City Bowl. Linebacker Keith Bulluck was selected in the first round (30th overall pick) by the Tennessee Titans in the 2000 NFL Draft. The University recognized the program's All-Century Team at the final home game. The All-Century roster included: Kevin Abrams (DB, 1994-96), Joe Alexander (OL, 1916-20), Gary Anderson (K, 1978-81), Jim Brown (RB, 1954-56), Gary Bugenhagen (OL, 1965-66), Rob Burnett (DL, 1987-89), Jim Collins (LB, 1976,78-80), Danny Conley (LB, 1990-94), Larry Csonka (FB, 1965-67), Donovin Darius (DB, 1994-97), Roger Davis (OL, 1957-59), Ernie Davis (RB, 1959-61), Joe Ehrmann (DL, 1969-70, 1972), John Flannery (C, 1987-90), Bob Fleck (DL, 1951-53), Paul Frase (DL, 1984-87), Chris Gedney (TE, 1989-92), Marvin Graves (QB, 1990-93), Tim Green (DL, 1982-85), Ted Gregory (DL, 1984-87), Vic Hanson (End, 1924-26), Marvin Harrison (WR, 1992-95), Bill Horr (OL, 1905-08), Kevin Johnson (KR, 1996-98), Daryl Johnston (FB, 1985-88), Floyd Little (RB, 1964-66), John Mackey (TE, 1960-62), Donovan McNabb, (QB, 1995-98), Don McPherson (QB, 1985-87), Kevin Mitchell (LB,1990-93), Art Monk (WR, 1976-79), Rob Moore (WR, 1987-89), Joe Morris (RB, 1978-81), Tommy Myers (DB, 1969-71), Pat O'Neill (P, 1990-93), Markus Paul DB, 1985-88), Jim Ridlon DB, 1954-56), Jim Ringo C, 1950-52), Walt Sweeney OL, 1960-62), Arthur Thom (DL, 1966-68), Stan Walters (OL, 1970-71), Craig Wolfley (OL, 1976-79), Terry Wooden (LB, 1986-89), Bob Yates (OL, 1958-59).

2000

Syracuse ran its streak of winning seasons to 14 with a 6-5 record. Cornerback Will Allen was the 22nd overall pick in the first round of the 2001 NFL Draft and is now a member of the New England Patriots.

2001

Syracuse continued its streak of winning seasons with its 15th in a row with a 10-3 record. SU was one of just four schools that could make the claim. SU beat Kansas State in the Insight.com Bowl for its 12th bowl win. Consensus All-American Dwight Freeney was selected in the first round of the NFL Draft, marking the fifth year in a row that an SU player heard his name in the opening round.

2002

Syracuse played in a school-record two triple overtime games, losing at Auburn and winning in the Carrier Dome against No. 8 Virginia Tech. Quarterback Troy Nunes concluded his SU career ranked in the top five on 10 different school record lists, while linebacker Clifton Smith and punter Mike Shafer etched their names among SU's record-holders, as well. In November, former standout quarterback Donovan McNabb was named to SU's Board of Trustees.

2003

Tailback Walter Reyes established the SU single-season records for rushing touchdowns (21) and total touchdowns (22) and the Syracuse career mark for rushing touchdowns (38) – as a junior. Receiver Johnnie Morant, defensive tackle Christian Ferrara, and offensive tackle Kevin Sampson entered the fraternity of SU players selected in the National Football League Draft. Head coach Paul Pasqualoni moved into the second spot on SU's career wins record list with 101.

2004

Running back Walter Reyes concluded his Orange career as SU's second all-time leading rusher with 3,424 yards. Syracuse finished the season as BIG EAST co-champions, the program's fourth league title, after a regular-season ending win at No. 17 Boston College. The Orange lost to Georgia Tech, 51-14, in the Champs Sports Bowl. Offensive tackle Adam Terry was chosen by the Baltimore Ravens in the second round of the 2005 National Football League Draft.

First-year Orange head coach Greg Robinson, who also served as the defensive coordinator, made an immediate impact on the Syracuse unit. The pass defense jumped 69 spots in the NCAA statistical rankings from 2004 (90th to 21st), while the total defense improved from 101st in 2004 to 57th in 2005. Free safety Anthony Smith led a group of four seniors who were selected in the 2006 NFL Draft when he was chosen in the third round by the defending Super Bowl Champion Pittsburgh Steelers. Offensive tackle Quinn Ojinnaka (Atlanta Falcons), defensive end James Wyche (Jacksonville Jaguars) and defensive end Ryan LaCasse (Baltimore Ravens) were selected in the draft.

The University dedicated the Carrier Dome field 'Ernie Davis Legends Field' in a halftime ceremory on October 10, 2009. The field was named in honor of Davis, who in 1961 was the first African-American to win the Heisman Trophy. Orange legend Jim Brown, Martin Luther King III, Chuck Davis, the uncle of Ernie Davis, and eight additional members of the Davis family participated in the ceremony. The ceremony also included a video address from United States Vice President Joseph Biden. In addition, Carrier Corporation president Mark Cywilko, Lacrosse Hall of Famer Chief Oren Lyons, former Syracuse football and lacrosse student-athletes, and members of civic organizations from Syracuse and Elmira were on the field for the special moment. The tribute to the first African-American to win the Heisman Trophy was inspired by Sam and Carol Nappi.

Quarterback Perry Patterson saved his best for last, setting career-highs in passing yards and touchdown passes. He finished his career ranked among the top five on five different Syracuse career record lists. Senior Brendan Carney led the special teams unit, finishing his career with Syracuse and BIG EAST records in punts and punting yardage. While Patterson and Carney closed out their careers, Delone Carter emerged as a threat during his freshman campaign. Carter rushed for 713 yards, the second-highest total for a freshman in school history. In April, Tanard Jackson and Kelvin Smith were selected in the 2007 NFL Draft.

2007

In his first season as a starter, quarterback Andrew Robinson stamped his name in the SU record books, including on five single-season record lists, while receiver Mike Williams set the SU record with a touchdown catch in nine consecutive games and also tied a school record with 60 receptions. The kick return duo of Max Suter and Mike Holmes also had a big year, leading the BIG EAST in average yards per return (24.8 ypr). Sophomore nose tackle Arthur Jones recorded 17.5 tackles for a loss, the third-best single-season total in Syracuse history.

2008

The world premiere of "The Express," the life story of Heisman Trophy winner Ernie Davis, was held in downtown Syracuse prior to SU's game against Penn State. Rob Brown, who played Ernie Davis, and Dennis Quaid, who portrayed Ben Schwartzwalder, were the honorary captains for the Orange. On the field, a 24-23 victory at Notre Dame Stadium announced the arrival of running back freshman Antwon Bailey, who ignited the game-winning touchdown drive with three carries for 29 yards. Quarterback Cam Dantley hit Donte Davis for the go-ahead score with 42 seconds remaining. Bailey finished the day with a career-best 126 yards on 16 carries and one touchdown. Nose tackle Arthur Jones had 15 tackles, including four for a loss of yards in the victory. Running back Curtis Brinkley established an SU record for consecutive 100-yard rushing games (five) and was one of four SU players to sign with an National Football League team. Fullback Tony Fiammetta (4th round) and guard Ryan Durand (seventh round) were selected in the annual draft, while Brinkley and safety Paul Chiara signed free agent deals.

2009

Doug Marrone returned to his alma mater as the program's 28th head coach after serving as the New Orleans Saints offensive coordinator for three years. The veteran coach brought in Syracuse native Greg Paulus to quarterback the Orange after a standout four-year basketball career at Duke. Marrone brought with him a new system that helped Paulus set records for highest completion percentage in a season (68%) and most completions in a season (193). Freshman Alec Lemon was a favorite Paulus target, catching 29 passes, which is the second-most for a Syracuse freshman. Punter Rob Long, a semifinalist for the 2009 Ray Guy Award, and defensive tackle Arthur Jones earned All-BIG EAST First Team honors. Jones was selected in the fifth round of the 2010 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Ravens. Running the ball, Delone Carter moved up the all-time rushing yards list to 19th with 1,871 yards. Defensively, the Orange ranked sixth nationally in sacks, 13th in rush defense and 37th in total defense. Linebacker Doug Hogue set a Syracuse record with 6.5 tackles for loss against Rutgers en route to earning national defensive player of the week honors.

In just his second year at the helm at Syracuse, head coach Doug Marrone and his team made incredible strides. Capped by a thrilling 36-34 win against Kansas State in the inaugural New Era Pinstripe Bowl, its first bowl bid in six years, the Orange finished the season with a winning record for the first time since 2001. Four of those wins came in BIG EAST competition, the most since 2004, including victories at West Virginia, bringing the Ben Schwartzwalder Trophy back to Syracuse after a nine-year spell, and at Cincinnati and USF, both BIG EAST firsts. The five wins away from the Carrier Dome were the most since 1992. The Orange was led by a strong pair of veteran linebackers, Doug Hogue and Derrell Smith. The duo was first (114) and second (95) in team tackles, respectively. Led by Hogue and Smith, the Orange defense ranked seventh in total defense at the year's end. Offensively, quarterback Ryan Nassib led the passing attack with 2,334 yards, which ranked fourth all-time at SU for passing yards in a season. Running back Delone Carter led the Syracuse ground game, rushing for 1,233 yards, including 198 in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl. Al Davis, NFL Owner

A 1950 graduate of Syracuse University, Al Davis built a legacy at the helm of the Oakland Raiders. His journey began as an Orange scholar-athlete playing for the junior varsity football, basketball and baseball teams. He tenaciously studied the game of football by attending practices and sitting at the top of Hendricks Hill overlooking Archbold Stadium every Saturday. He tracked each play the Orange ran. Following every game, he and Syracuse head coach Ben Schwartzwalder compared notes.

Davis then transferred his skills to the coaching ranks, starting as an assistant at Adelphi College and then made stops at Army, the Baltimore Colts, The Citadel, Southern California and then the Los Angeles Chargers. He joined the Chargers coaching staff in 1960, a move that launched him into stardom. Three years later, he became the youngest head coach in professional football when he was named head coach and general manager of the Oakland Raiders. Davis was named AFL Coach of the Year in his first season after guiding the Raiders to a 10-4 record. He is credited with turning the Oakland Raiders from a losing squad to one of the most successful franchises in the NFL. Dubbed one of the 'smartest men in professional football,' Davis turned Oakland into one of the winningest teams in pro sports from 1963 until 1991. The Raiders won one AFL championship, three Super Bowls and made 15 playoff appearances during his tenure as head coach. He is currently the only individual in professional football to have served as an assistant coach, head coach, commissioner, general manager and principal owner.

The 1992 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee was honored at Syracuse University in 1985 as an honorary Letterman of Distinction. He passed away in October 2011 at the age of 82.

Honoring the All-Time Greats

Orange All-Americans Larry Csonka (above) and John Mackey (right) returned to the Dome in 2007 to celebrate the retirement of their Syracuse jerseys.

Syracuse football standouts Larry Csonka and John Mackey watched their Syracuse jerseys raised to the Carrier Dome rafters in ceremonies during the 2007 season. The jersey retirements honored two of the program's legends.

A two-time All-American, Csonka played for the Orange from 1965 through 1967. As a senior captain he earned consensus All-America honors. He had two 200-yard rushing performances in his career, galloping for 216 yards against West Virginia and 204 yards versus California as a senior. Csonka still ranks third on SU's career rushing record list (2,934 yards) and is second all-time with 15 career 100-yard rushing games.

"Larry Csonka is obviously one of the greatest players of all time," said Syracuse Director of Athletics Dr. Daryl Gross. "His accomplishments at Syracuse were amazing and then he went on to an outstanding career in the National Football League, including playing for the undefeated 1972 Miami Dolphins. We salute Larry for his legacy as we welcome him back to Syracuse."

Mackey, who passed away in July 2011 after a long illness, played for the Orange from 1960 through 1962. He had 27 receptions for 481 yards and scored six touchdowns. As a junior, he caught 15 passes for a then school-record 321 yards. He was a key contributor to Syracuse's 1961 Liberty Bowl triumph with four receptions against Miami.

"John Mackey is arguably the greatest tight end in history and should be recognized as such," Gross said. "His level of play was something that the Syracuse community had the opportunity to enjoy during his career while calling him their own. We applaud his courage and will remember him forever by raising his jersey in the Carrier Dome for permanent display."

In 2013, Orange quarterback legends Don McPherson and Donovan McNabb will join the elite group with the retirement of their jerseys. McPherson will be honored on October 5th when the Orange hosts Clemson and McNabb will return to the Dome for his ceremony on November 2nd when Wake Forest visits the 'Cuse.

Quarterback Terrel Hunt guided the Orange on a game-winning touchdown drive late in the fourth quarter to spark Syracuse to a 21-17 victory against Minnesota. It was Syracuse's third bowl victory in the last four years.

The Orange jumped out to a 5-2 start, including a 49-23 victory against No. 11/14 West Virginia in the Carrier Dome. Losses in the last five games, however, left Syracuse without a return trip to a bowl game. Defensive end Chandler Jones used a standout season to jump start his NFL career. The younger brother of former SU and current Baltimore Ravens defensive tackle Arthur Jones was the New England Patriots' first pick, and the 21st overall, in the 2012 NFL Draft. Offensive guard Andrew Tiller was chosen in the sixth round, while Antwon Bailey, Michael Hay, Nick Provo, Phillip Thomas, Kevyn Scott and Dorian Graham signed free agent contracts. Quarterback Ryan Nassib, Provo and receiver Alec Lemon turned in record-setting performances. Nassib had the best statistical passing season in school history, establishing team records for completions (259), attempts (415), yards (2,685) and matching the record for passing touchdowns (22). In addition, his 29 completions against Rhode Island tied the Syracuse single-game record. Lemon set the Orange season record for the most receptions (68) and matched the record for receiving yards by a junior (834), while Provo, a Mackey Award semifinalist as one of the nation's best tight ends, finished his career as the most prolific pass-catching tight end in school history, setting SU marks for receptions in a season (51) and career (92) for a player at his position. Jones, Provo, Tiller, Bailey and Justin Pugh earned first-team All-BIG EAST honors.

Running back Prince-Tyson Gulley earned the 2012 New Era Pinstripe Bowl Most Valuable Player award after gaining a career-high 213 yards on 26 carries and catching five passes for 56 yards, leading Syracuse to a 38-14 victory against former BIG EAST rival West Virginia.

In its final year in the BIG EAST, Syracuse won a share of the conference championship with a 5-2 league record. Syracuse defeated Big 12 representative and former BIG EAST rival West Virginia, 38-14, at Yankee Stadium for its second New Era Pinstripe Bowl victory in the past three seasons. Quarterback Ryan Nassib surpassed his previous team record for completions (295) and attempts (415). Nassib also set new team records for passing yards (3,757) and passing touchdowns (26). Lemon set the Orange season record for the most receptions (72). Lemon, Pugh and Thomas earned first-team All-BIG EAST honors. Nassib earned Pro Football Weekly All-American honors. Offensive tackle Justin Pugh was drafted in the first round (19th overall selection) by the New York Giants, who also selected Nassib in the fourth round (110th overall selection). Strong safety Shamarko Thomas immediately followed Nassib to the league as the 111th overall pick by the Pittsburgh Steelers. Deon Goggins, Marcus Sales, Alec Lemon, Zack Chibane, Brandon Sharpe and Lou Alexander all signed free agent contracts.

Syracuse won its third bowl game in the last four seasons, defeating Big Ten foe Minnesota, 21-17, in the Texas Bowl at Reliant Stadium in Houston, for the program's 15th bowl championship. Scott Shafer became the second head coach in program history to lead SU to bowl victory in his first year at the helm. In ACC play, the Orange was 4-4 in its first year as a member of the conference and finished in tie for third place in the Atlantic Division with Boston College. The Orange finished in the top 10 three NCAA statistical categories (fewest fumbles lost, blocked kicks and kick return yardage defense). The defense recorded 37 sacks, the third-most in school history and the highest team total since 2001 (40).Five members of the Orange earned All-ACC honors, including C Macky MacPherson (second team), DT Jay Bromley (third team), S Durell Eskridge (third team), RB Jerome Smith (third team), LB Marquis Spruill (third team) and OT Sean HIckey (honorable mention). Bromley and Spruill were selected in the 2014 NFL Draft. The New York Giants chose Bromley in the third round while the Atlanta Falcons took Spruill in the fifth round.

Soladay Award

It is fitting that the Soladay Award is the most prestigious award given to a student-athlete by the Department of Athletics. After all, Doris R. Soladay epitomized all of the positives in intercollegiate athletics. The Soladay Award is given annually to the top male and female student-athletes who best exemplify the essence of Doris.

From her appointment as the first, and only, Director of Women's Athletics at Syracuse University in 1975 until the day she retired as Associate Director of Athletics on May 31, 1995, Doris dedicated herself to student-athletes wearing the Orange of SU. The SU Department of Athletics and the world of intercollegiate sports lost a dear friend when Doris passed away in May, 2001.

Ryan Durand is one of three football student-athletes to win the Soladay Award.

Doris established scholarships for women, while increasing the budgets to run the programs. She worked with the late Chancellor Melvin Eggers and others who supported women's athletics to begin Orange Plus. Throughout her career, Doris made it a point to attend every home athletic contest of every Syracuse team whenever possible. She often cheered on one team in the morning, another in the afternoon and a third in the evening.

Her impact on athletics reaches far beyond "The Hill," however. Prior to the NCAA taking women's athletics into its fold, Doris held offices on numerous committees in the AIAW (Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women) on the state, regional and national levels. After the merger Doris directed her energy into the NCAA Council, serving from 1989 through 1995.

Doris was also influential regionally where she was an integral part of the expansion of The BIG EAST Conference to include women's athletics, as well as chairing various committees in the league. The ECAC also benefitted from her knowledge and savvy, where she was a member of the ECAC Women's Steering Committee from 1983-87. For her many outstanding contributions, the ECAC honored Doris with the 1995 Katherine Ley Award, presented annually to a women's athletics administrator who serves as a role model for her colleagues, as well as a strong proponent of women's issues.

It is no secret that since her retirement her presence in the corridors of Manley Field House has been missed, but it is clear that her legacy will remain a part of the Orange forever.

SUccess Stories

The Zunic Award

The Zunic Award was created in 2001 to honor Mike and Judy Zunic who died tragically on July 18, 1989 when a United Airlines plane crashed in Sioux City, Iowa. The pilot, anticipating landing difficulties, requested if some strong passengers would volunteer to give up their seats and sit at the exit doors to assist passengers in the event of an emergency. Mike and Judy volunteered to give up their seats in first class and sit at one of the exit doors. Mike and Judy both died in the crash and those in the Zunic's seats survived.

Mike was a four year starter as a linebacker and earned a B.A. ('81) and Master's ('82) in speech communication.

Norma and William Zunic, the parents of the late Mike Zunic, were the first recipients of the award established in honor of their son.

In the NFL ...

- First head coach of Jacksonville Jaguars (1995-2002)
- 1995 UPI NFL Coach of the Year
- Guided Giants to Super Bowl wins in 2007 and 2011 seasons.
- Has coached the Jaguars and Giants to a combined five division titles and nine play-off berths.

At Syracuse ...

- Part of backfield that featured Floyd Little and Larry Csonka
- University's oustanding scholar-athlete as senior
- Graduate assistant coach in 1969

"I take tremendous pride in having played at Syracuse. I played for a head coach (Ben Schwartzwalder) who was as fundamentally sound in the game as anyone who has ever coached it."

In the NFL ...
- 2013 Pittsburgh Steelers fourth-round draft choice
- Recorded 29 tackles in 14 games as a rookie.

At Syracuse
- Started 39-of-48 games at Syracuse
- 2012 First Team All-BIG EAST Conference selection
- Accumulated 263 career tackles with the Orange

"While at Syracuse, everybody treated me as a man, not just as a football player. Coach Doug Marrone, Coach Scott Shafer and the other coaches, their mindset wasn't always just about football; it was about growing these young guys into men. And I feel like that's what Syracuse did for me. It developed me into a man, and it's helped me in the NFL, with how to be a pro and succeed in life."

The sixth player selected overall in the 1967 draft, Floyd Little (44) made an immediate impact on Denver Bronocos. A multi-dimensional player, the five-time Pro Bowl and two-time All-Pro pick combined his rushing talents with great hands and also served as a return man for the Denver Broncos. He amassed more than 12,000 all-purpose yards during a career that spanned from 1967 to 1975. (Photo courtesy of the Denver Broncos)
